MANCHESTER MAN SENTENCED FOR CRACK DISTRIBUTION

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE: United States Attorney Tom Colantuono and Manchester Police Chief John Jaskolka today announced that Jake Linder, age 28, of Manchester, NH, was sentenced to a 46-month term of imprisonment followed by a 3-year period of supervised release for his involvement in the distribution of crack cocaine in and around Manchester, New Hampshire.

The sentence was the result of a two month investigation which revealed that Linder and others associated with him, were distributing crack cocaine in the area of Gates and Rimmon Streets in Manchester.

United States Attorney Colantuono commended the investigation and prosecution stating, "This investigation represents another successful effort by the Manchester Police Department in eradicating crack dealers from the streets of Manchester. The United States Attorney's Office and Manchester Police Department will continue with their efforts to investigate and prosecute individuals who utilize the streets of Manchester in order to profit from the distribution of controlled substances."

The prosecution was the result of an investigation by the Manchester, New Hampshire Police Department. This prosecution was handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Terry Ollila.
